Important Notice to all Reserve Ticket Holders !!!

Winstock Reserve ticket holders will be issued a weekend wristband and a lanyard for your Reserved Ticket. The wristband is your access into the concert area and the lanyard with your Reserve ticket is your access into the Reserved Seating area. This will give you the option to let someone else use your Reserved ticket, but remember, only one person can enter the Reserved seating section with the lanyard. It is your responsibility if your wristband or Reserved-seating lanyard is lost or stolen. Winstock will not reissue any lost, stolen or damaged wristbands. Please watch for the signs directing you to the Reserved seating area. One of the Reserved Seating entrance is on the north side of the VIP area. It is the same entrance as the Handicap area. There is also a second entrance by the south VIP entrance. Security will be there to check for the Reserved Badge.

Just a few short reminders:

- You must wear your wristbands at all times and the Reserve seating lanyard while you are in the Reserve seating area. Absolutely no one will be admitted to the Reserved seating area without proper identification. No exceptions will be made.
- The Reserved seating area is divided into two sections, seats 1 to 306 are to the north of the Sound stage and seats 307 to 546 are to the south of the Sound stage.
- Please take time and visit Winstock's Emerging Artists Stage, which will be a second stage at Winstock 2011 and feature hot up-and-coming Nashville talent!! Watch for more details on site.

If you have any questions regarding your Reserved seating ticket, please call our toll-free number 1-888-946-7865 and our operators will try to answer any of your questions. Remember to renew your Reserved Seating tickets for 2012 at the information tent to retain your current seat location.
